Little did I realize that when Judy and I drove through Dixon, while on our honeymoon, in 1954, that Judy and I would, many years later, be living in this land of Enchantment – wonderful!!

What brought you to Dixon? Judy was responsible for us moving to Dixon. Judy and the great people in the community are the reasons we have stayed here.

Judy married first husband, William LaClair, September, 1950. He was a Navy pilot training for Korean war. On November 7, 1951, on his 23rd birthday his plane crashed in the Pacific, and he passed away. We had a 2 month old son at the time of his death. Judy married Doug Nelson, September 29, 1954, had one more son and two daughters.

We lived in Sydney (Mosman) Australia from January 1970 to October 1972. I ran La Casita in Dixon, next to Chiripada Winery, for 3 months in 1990. We bought our home in Embudo, November 1992.

Note: Doug and Judy joined the Embudo Presbyterian Church and became very active in all church activities. They are wonderful dedicated people whose outlook in life is a joy to witness. They are involved in many church activities and are truly disciples of Jesus Christ.
